PITTSBURGH DISTRICT RAIL MEN VOTE TO CONTINUE STRIKE

Despite This Pennsylvania Reports Increased Movement of Freight Trains.

By Associated Press.
PITTSBURGH, April 29.—Two groups of Pennsylvania railroad employees announced today they had voted to continue the strike—yardmen from the Pitsburgh yards and freight men at Wilkensburg.

At the same time the railroad announced that 42,203 cars had been moved in the central region yesterday, an increase of 2,195 cars over the day before.

Forty-eight trains, the railroad announced, had been moved out of the Pitsburgh yards, 46 from Conway and 21 from Scully. The passenger services, the statement continued, had been fully maintained and in addition 62 express trains had been handled.

The Baltimore & Ohio reported that additional men had returned to the Glenwood yards with a consequent improvement in freight and passenger service in the Pitsburgh terminal.

Under an injunction granted yesterday by the United States District court in Pitsburgh, G. H. An increase in pay was asked of the Pitsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad company yesterday by clerks, freight handlers and express and station employees, W. W. Williams, general chairman of the system adjustment board of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, presenting the request.

The action was not a strike movement but Mr. Williams asserted that if the request does not find a response before May 13, it will be carried before the Railroad Labor Board. The increase asked is 20 cents an hour, retroactive to January 1, 1919, with a sufficient additional increase per hour to cover the increased cost of living retroactive to August 1, 1919.

LAST HOUR CONFESSION

May Save Lives of Three Carbed in Death Suits at Sing Sing.

OSSEILING, N. Y., April 29.—A drama on which hangs the fate of three men was enacted today in the death house at Sing Sing prison. Condemned to die in the electric chair tonight with three companions, Joseph Milano made a confession to Warden Laws in which he asserted he alone was responsible for the death of Otto Pulo, a Bronx station agent, robbed and murdered last year. The confession made its purpose was at once telegraphed to Governor Smith while relatives and friends sped to Albany and New York to appeal to the governor and supreme court for a stay of execution.

When Milano made his confession the prisoners had been moved to cells nearer the death chamber and had been given their black suits. Prison officials had just tested the electric chair.

REPUBLICANS GAIN IN CITY REGISTRATION

Many Democrats Change Their Party Affiliation, Registrars Say.

RAILROAD MEN ROUSED

Their Faces Are Turned to the G. O.
P. Because of Failure of Democratic Administration to Keep Promises on Wages and Reducing Living Cost.

Affiliations with the Republican party were increased by the city registration yesterday, returns of the registrars show. While the accurate count in some of the wards was not obtained, those in charge of the enrollment said the proportion largely favored the Republicans.

While it had not been expected that the number of registrants for the entire city would reach the 100 mark, a total of 144 new names was recorded. Republicans led by big majorities in practically every ward but the Second and here the registration was close.

In the Fifth ward, which had the heaviest enrollment, there being 39, the Republicans outnumbered the Democrats three to one. In this ward a number of Democrats swung to the Republican party. This movement was especially decided among the railroad men, it was said. They are turning from the party because of the utter failure of the Democratic administration to afford them relief in living conditions.

In the Third ward the Republicans also had a big lead. The score was 16 Republicans, nine Democrats, and one Socialist, a total of 26. Although no Democrats already registered appeared to change their party affiliation, some former staunch supporters who did appear to be enrolled, gave their party preference as Republican.

The First ward also went strongly Republican. In this ward there were 14 for that party, compared with four registering as Democrats. One Socialist also registered here.

On the West Side there were more voters registered in both wards than had been expected. In the Seventh there were 11 and in the Sixth there were 17. The Republican party was also favored in these wards.

The Fourth ward registered a total of 22. Here also the Republicans were in the majority.

The well is that promoted by Mr. Greig, A. C. Herwick, K. K. Kramer and E. A. Bailey. The second well was expected in today.

The sand in the first well was reached at a depth of 3,652 feet. Strong wind, which blew the gas toward the boiler, prevented drilling Tuesday. It resumed Wednesday. When the drill was 28 to 30 feet in the sand a mercury gauge test was made showing the flow to be as above stated.

SCHEDULE FILED

For Distribution of $1,500,000 Among J. V. Thompson Creditors.

A schedule of distribution of approximately $1,500,000, to those holding prior judgments and other claims upon the J. V. Thompson estate, has been filed with the referee in bankruptcy in Pittsburg for approval and elimination of overlapping claims. The amount involves all but slightly more than $1,000,000 of the equity in the estate, which sum West Virginia creditors recently were paid under a compromise schedule and agreement which permitted the sale of the entire Thompson estate to the Piedmont Coal company, a holding corporation. An order amending the final order of March 9, 1920, confirming the sale of the estate, was handed down yesterday in the United States District court by Judge W. H. S. Thomson, approving the substitution by Referee William B. Blair of the name of Justin M. Kunkel for that of John Thorn, as purchaser of a piece of property known as Item No. 4 in the trustee's petition.

The accident occurred on the Uniontown-Connelville road, the statement claims, in which the boy was struck, knocked down and dragged for considerable distance. As a result, it is claimed, his right arm was broken, his injured and ligaments of his back lacerated, which the statement claims, are permanent injuries.

Save the Babies

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, douches and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. There can be no danger in the use of Castoria if it bears the signature of J. C. Fletcher.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of J. C. Fletcher.

IF YOU NEED A MEDICINE YOU SHOULD HAVE THE BEST

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it. A prominent druggist says, "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Farcen Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention the courier. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.—Adv.

HOOSIER

THE SILENT SERVANT WITH A HUNDRED HANDS

BEST---In the Judgment of Two Million Housewives

Prove for yourself that the Hoosier is best for you. Study each Hoosier feature. Come to our store. Sit in front of the Hoosier, visualizing exactly how it will fit into your kitchen work. Better still, have it sent out so that you can actually place it and study its possibilities as a step saver and economizer—RIGHT ON YOUR HOME GROUNDS. May we suggest that you do this TODAY?

Two million American housewives have agreed that the Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet is the most satisfactory—otherwise, they would obviously have bought some other kind. It is founded on what the housewife KNOWS—not on what theorists think. We have given every constructive suggestion careful study—accepted the proved IMPROVEMENTS—rejected all the rest. The Hoosier's patented flour sifter, which also fluffs the flour, illustrates what we mean by a PROVED improvement. Every day the need of a Hoosier IN YOUR KITCHEN becomes more and more apparent. And that need is sharpened by the present scarcity of GOOD kitchen help.

"Wien free and worry." That's why they overwork, get nervous, all run down, have no appetite, and can "hardly drag around." Vinol creates a hearty appetite, induces sound sleep, invigorates the nerves, creates strength and quiets the nerves.

It is the beef and cod liver peptones contained in Vinol aided by iron and glycerophosphates which makes it such a famous blood maker, nerve builder and strength creator.

A NEW INDUSTRY FOR FAYETTE.

The Fayette Farm Bureau and all well posted farmers know that the county has such a diversity of soil and climatic conditions that practically all farm, fruit and garden crops can be successfully grown within its borders. Between the lowlands of the river valleys, the uplands of the section known to the pioneers as "the settlement," and the slopes and crests of the mountain ridges, there is provided a variety of soil and growing conditions which are peculiarly adapted to the farm and garden crops and where each, if properly placed, will produce the best results in point of quality and quantity.

The increasing demands for foodstuffs right here in our home markets require that more attention must be given to the raising of crops best adapted to local needs. To meet this demand with greatest advantage both to the grower and the consumer there must be selection of localities where experience has shown certain crops can be most profitably produced and with the largest yield. This is especially true of potatoes which should be made one of the staple crops of the county and can be made such, if the suggestion of the Uniontown Herald is given the consideration its importance and timeliness deserves. Our county capital contemporary says:

We have been hearing much of late about the potato situation in general but we hear little of the potato situation surrounding Uniontown. If more attention were given to the potato situation surrounding Uniontown the people of Fayette county would not be so much concerned with the potato situation in general.

Uniontown is one of the best markets in the state for any grade of potatoes. Approximately one car load of potatoes is shipped into and distributed from this market every day, six car loads per week, 350 per car.

Within 10 miles of this market we have one of the best potato producing sections in the state. Potatoes demand a mild cool climate. The mountain at our very door has such a climate. Potatoes demand a loose, open, sandy soil. The mountain at our very door has such soil. That this section is rich in its potato producing possibilities is well known to potato agricultural authorities and yet with such a large acreage available, with such an opportunity presented for farmers in the mountain to avail themselves of such production which would mean for their own advantage—mountain potatoes always command a premium of 25 to 30 cents because of their quality—and which would mean so much to the consumers of the county, the land continues to lie idle, potatoes are shipped into this market every day from farms hundreds of miles away and prices are low and the potato situation in this county is being utilized at the present time. And only a few weeks ago potatoes were coming into Uniontown from Michigan, Minnesota, and Wisconsin farmers and selling for from ten to twelve dollars a sack wholesale. Ridiculous situation then you think of it, don't you? And then people wonder at the high cost of living. This is one good illustration of one of the many reasons why.

Farmers in the mountain are beginning to realize their advantage, we are informed. This is good news. We hope that such realization comes speedily to many more of them. Our Farm Bureau has an especially good field here for useful service. It strikes us that here is a golden opportunity for our farmers for real profit and service and that the mountain potatoes serve best. Let the farmers cooperate in the production of the same variety of potato. Let them increase acre production by using the right seed, by proper fertilizing and weeding, by spraying, thereby eliminating waste. Then let the tubers be graded, put up in standard containers and labeled "Grown in Fayette County" and in due time we will have a potato market that will make them all jealous and we will have all the potatoes we want—potatoes of the finest grade, too—at prices which will make potato production an exceedingly profitable and profitable business. Here's hoping this is the last year that we will have such a potato situation as now exists in Fayette county.

What is true of Uniontown in this respect is equally true of Conneltsville. Within a few miles of the city limits there are acres and acres of mountain land which could be made to produce sufficient potatoes to supply both the local and neighborhood markets and all the same time develop a native industry to proportions that would give Fayette county a new claim to distinction.

Lloyd George, the British premier, told the San Remo council that the League of Nations is a peril to world peace. The time has come, he said, to discard it and get down to practical things, and strongly intimated that it was put in the treaty merely as a sop to Mr. Wilson. He rather frankly stated that the astute British diplomat fixed the covenant so that if the league were made a reality, British interests would get nothing but the best of it. It is taken the American people a good while to discover what sort of a prize package was handed to their gullible representatives at the peace conference, but it is encouraging to know that they have awakened to the dangers of becoming enthralled by a European controlled superstate.

Score up another "great victory" for the anti-profiteering campaign of the Department of Justice. Three Greeks have been arrested in Tennessee for overcharging for sandwiches.

The year 1919 has been a successful one for the annual report of the American Woolen Company, the reputed trust in the woolen trade. It would appear in view of the fact that the net profit of the company was $1,500,000.

The change of party affiliations by Democrats at yesterday's registration shows how much the ad-insultations of one party against the other have been "intolerable conditions" which are the price we have been paying for having been kept out of war before April 15, 1918, and also out of peace ever since.

Fayette county isn't strong on the knightly "proprietion" but if the British finger upon keeping up the tradition they won't find any better material than former Fayette countians.

It begins to look as if the taxcollectors in Mexico have revised a once famous slogan of our own to read, "Casta Caravana."

Georgia Solution of the H. C. L. Baxter (then) We heard of well-known Mountain Home man say the other day that he didn't take as much exercise as he ought to because exercise works up his appetite and his grocery bills are high enough now.

Referred to Department of Justice, Johnstown Democrat. But why shouldn't the war profiteers pay for the war and for its consequences?

Nine Pounds in Five Weeks.

"Last December I caught a heavy cold, which left me with a deep-seated cough. I coughed so hard it would start the blood. I thought I was a goner, until I tried Milks Emulsion. I used nine bottles altogether. My cough is gone, and I have gained nine pounds in five weeks. If anyone doubts it, let them write me."—Chas. A. Walters, 147 So. 18th St., Pittsburg, Pa.

When hundreds upon hundreds of people tell you of just such recovery, just such gains in weight, it must be worth your trying, at least. A trial costs nothing.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowels; action, doing away with all need of pills and physic. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles (come with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

NO "WET" GOODS FOR "DRY" CONGRESSMEN ON JUNKET TO ORIENT

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Can a "dry" congressman carry "wet goods" aboard a government transport?

Emphatically no, said the internal revenue bureau today. About 150 congressmen soon are to have a merry little junket to far away Philippines, via the Panama canal. The party includes a large number of "dry" law framers.

Some of the "drys" as well as the "wets" thought a good way to combat sea sickness would be to store away some of the cellar stocks in the steamer trunks.

But the legal division at prohibition enforcement headquarters, in reply to a few polite queries from Capitol Hill, put a crimp in these plans.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison
Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer in this vicinity that if two bottles of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the patient was helpless.

Allenru relieves at once. Immediately after you start to take it the good work begins. It searches out the uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels.

It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Blessed relief is felt in two days, and even in cases where the suffering is most painful all traces disappear in a few days.

James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed the Connellsville Drug Co. to guarantee it in every instance.—Adv.

TO DEVELOP TIMBER.

Everett Man Acquires Tract of 1,200
Acres Near That Place.

MEYERSDALE, April 29.—J. E. Reitz, who resided at West Alexandria, Pa., for the last year or more, where he was engaged in operating a stationary engine, has returned to his former home in Everett, and, in conjunction with several others has purchased about 1,200 acres of timberland located west of Everett, on the Lincoln highway, and will convert the three or four million feet of timber into lumber.

Mr. Reitz is a son of H. H. Reitz and a brother of Albert Reitz, cashier of the First National bank of Salisbury.

Could Not Stand Straight.

It does not take long, when the kidneys are out of order and not doing their work properly, for poisonous acids to accumulate in the system and cause aches and pains. D. C. Diamond, 2865 W. 30 St., Cleveland, O., writes: "I caught cold and it settled in my kidneys. My back and sides were so lame and sore I could not stand straight. I use Foley Kidney Pills with good results and am glad to testify to their helping power." Sold everywhere.—Adv.

CONNELLSVILLE BASEBALL TEAM, ON PAPER, SIZES UP AS WINNING AGGREGATION

Only Apparent Weakness Now Is in Pitching Department.

THIS WILL BE REMEDIED

The Connelville Independent baseball team is, on paper, one of the strongest assembled in this city for a long time, excepting its pitching department. The pitching department is causing the management no end of worry. This is the only place where the team is weak. The club has received numerous applications from pitchers who are anxious to play with the team, but do not come up to the standard that the club desires. The club is undecided regarding the engaging of Jim Lane. This is the pitcher that the club was after. He has had the necessary experience. The Cleveland Americans gave him a try out, but he failed to come through. When Frank Horne was here the club hoped that Frank would do one of its uniforms, but Frank decided at the last minute that he would join his club at Albany. This move should not be held against him, as it is a well known fact that a pitcher of his ability could do much better than with the local club.

The club's weakness on the mound is only temporary. It has Teneate, the Uniontown speed boy, but it is doubtful if he can handle all the work against the fast company that is booked to topple the Independents. Randolph, the Bethany college star, will join the team as soon as he finishes his season at college. When Harry comes here he will be in far better condition than most of the pitchers who will oppose him as he is working regularly on the mound. The club has more scouts on the lookout for twirlers than most of the big leagues have.

"Red" Lynch, one of the best semi-pro catchers in the Pittsburgh district, is one of the men who are on the lookout for a pitcher for the local club. "Red," who was in the city yesterday, informed one of the club officials that he has several seasoned pitchers in view and would try and reach them when he returned to Pittsburgh. Jake Piller, the manager of the Oil City team, will no doubt be the man to send on the much needed finger. If there is any man that can get the pitcher, it is Jake.

Jake, who is friendly to one of the club officials through the relations of this person with his brother, Johnny Ray, has given his assurance that he will get the right man for the club. The teams that are booked to play Connelville are a fast lot and a pitcher of more than ordinary ability will be needed to carry the team through a successful season. The rest of the team is above the average. Jones will be the backstop. His ability is so well known that it needs no mention. Smiley will cover first base. The rest of the infield will be amply taken care of. The boys who will be chosen include Andy Gossie, Mike Henry, Brown, Dickerson, Run, Ping Townsend, former of Star Junction, Hobbs Fisher, an ivy league importation who has had some big league experience. The infield that will be selected is above par. In the outfield, Walter Moody, Amie Frazier and Chip Francis are a trio that can hardly be bettered. Moody is the team's mainstay with the stick.

Before the opening game, no doubt, the club will have the much needed pitcher to help out with Teneate until Randolph joins the outfit. That its pitching department will be above the average toward the end of its schedule there can be no question. As it is it could worry along but the club does not want to take any chances. It is out to win every game that it will play.

The Independents is one of the best drawing teams that plays out of Fayette county. The Independents will have the usual list of classy players, with some reinforcements. The newcomers are both pitchers, a department in which the Independents were weak last season. They are Pauls, who recently returned to Everson from Washington, D. C., and O'Donnell of Cumberland, Md., and both are speed artists.

The Independents have May 25 and June 12 and 28 open abroad. On May 8 they meet Irwin A. C. at the car shop grounds; May 15, Homestead Grays, at car shops; May 31, go to New Kensington for two games, morning and afternoon, and June 19 at St. Vincent's college.

The Independents would like to hear from Connelville. Write V. P. Sawed, Box 257, Everson, Pa.

BASEBALL CHIRPS.

The announcement that the Connelville Independents' uniforms would be placed on display in several of the store windows in town was a bit premature. It was found that some of the uniforms needed alterations and were returned to the dealer for that purpose. Rather than put on display the remaining uniforms it was decided to wait the return of those to be altered. These are expected back by Saturday.

It is said that two or three of the Trotter team's stars will not come to bat next Saturday unless the weather moderates. These boys in question are afraid of taking any chances with their arms during the cold spell. They can hardly be censured for declining to play. The cold weather may disabuse them for the rest of the season.

The cold and rainy weather is not only interfering with the local teams, but with the major teams as well. It is a common occurrence to see where the games have been called off on account of the rain, wet grounds or cold weather. The fans will be the lucky ones on account of this state of affairs. They will certainly have plenty of opportunities to witness doubleheaders.

The West Penn team is not in any hurry to start its season. Honsberger stated that the West Penn team would no doubt be composed mostly of college players. As soon as the team is assembled he will announce the line-up in these columns.

ASSISTANT MANAGER OF STATE BOXING TEAM

Fred W. Gans, a member of the class of '22 at Pennsylvania State College, has been elected a first assistant manager of the "varsity" boxing team, with which he served as second assistant manager during the past season. This team created quite a stir in collegiate sports circles last season by winning many meet except one. The biggest victory of the year was over the team of the Canadian University, composed of students who had been champion boxers of the Canadian overseas forces during the war.

BOXING.

The possibilities of Billy Carter boxing in Altoona are getting very slim. Carter received an offer to box there on either the 10th or 14th of May. With the offer came the message: "If you want this bout, send $25 at once as a forfeit." When details were asked regarding weight and other matters pertaining to a match, no reply was received. Was this a game to humbug the local boy out of one of this world's lubricants?

The plans of the Keystone Boxing club, which also includes James "Red" Mason and other Smoky City fight impresarios, got quite a jolt when they learned that they could not step in and put on some bouts at Uniontown this season. Uniontown had a dose of the bunch before, which was enough.

Tonight's bouts, Cal Delaney vs. Eddie Fitzsimmons, 10 rounds, Cleveland; Willie Beecher vs. Dave Nelson, 10 rounds, Massillon, Ohio; Joe Lynch vs. Kid Reagan, eight rounds, St. Louis.

PRODUCTION OF COAL IN WORLD ON 1910 LEVEL

Total For 1919 Estimated at 1,170,000,000 Metric Tons.

THE UNITED STATES LEADS

With 494,000,000 Tons; United Kingdom Second With 237,000,000; Germany Third With 109,000,000; Cut to Half Pre-War Output in France.

The world's production of coal in 1919 seems to have dropped back to the level of 1910. Preliminary estimates, necessarily rough, place the total output of all kinds of coal in 1919 at 1,170,000,000 metric tons, or 1,290,000,000 net tons. This is 162,000,000 metric tons less than the production in 1918, the last year of the World War, and about 171,000,000 tons less than that of 1913, the year before the war began.

This estimate is based by the United States Geological Survey upon reports to the Supreme Economic Council from countries which contribute about 85 per cent of the world's output. Obviously, returns from the other countries may materially alter this figure; if anything, they will probably reduce it still further.

The following table shows the estimated production of the world for each year from 1910 to 1919. Because of disturbances and interruptions in the compilations of government statistics, particularly in Central and Eastern Europe, figures since 1913 are not to be regarded as final. The metric tons of 2,205 pounds is used because it is the prevailing unit in non-English speaking countries. Americans will remember it most easily as being roughly equivalent to the gross ton and the English ton.

The world's production of coal, 1910-1919, in metric tons of 2,205 pounds, was as follows:

Year	Production, Per Cent
1910	1,160,000,000 32.2
1911	1,245,000,000 33.3
1912	1,341,000,000 35.3
1913	1,295,000,000 35.5
1914	1,330,000,000 36.5
1915	1,370,000,000 37.5
1916	1,370,000,000 37.5
1917	1,335,000,000 36.2
1918	1,332,000,000 36.2
1919	1,170,000,000 32.1

Comparative production in five of the belligerent countries before and after the war is shown in the following table, given in millions of metric tons:

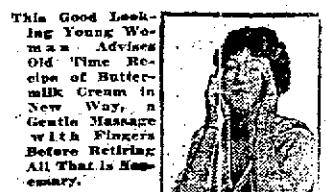

Country	1913	1919
United Kingdom	237	237
France (present boundaries)	11	22
Belgium	23	15
Germany (present boundaries)	109	109
Italy	173	173

United States	494	494

It is pointed out by the Supreme Economic Council that from 1913 to 1919 the output of bituminous coal in the four European countries shown in the table has fallen from 532 millions to 536 millions, the decrease being about 20 per cent in the United Kingdom and Belgium, and nearly 40 per cent in Germany. In the Saar Valley, whose output appears to have fallen from 12 million tons in 1913 to about 8 millions in 1919, the percentage of decrease was over 30. The reduction in the French output is mainly due to the destruction of the mines in the Nord and Pas de Calais.

The output of lignite in Germany in 1919, though less than in 1918, was still greater than before the war, being 94 million tons, as compared with 87 millions in 1913.

At the Theatres

THE SOISSON.

"A DAUGHTER OF TWO WORLDS"—A story derived from a novel by LeRoy Scott and made intensely interesting by a talented star and highly intelligent director, is being shown today. The motive of "A Daughter of Two Worlds," is to show the influence of environment on character, or that there is no excellence without opportunity. Norma Talmadge is superb in the role of a girl who is compelled to live down a faulty early life, dispel the natural distrust of the man who loves her and overcome the prejudice of his family. She is always convincing, a veritable artist of the first rank. Her support is admirable, Frank

Sheridan as Black Jerry Malone, Jack Crosby as Kenneth Harrison, Virginia Lee as Sue and William Shea as Slim Jackson, taking the honors. But to James Young, as director, must be accorded praise without stint for his skillful handling of material and situations somewhat hackneyed. He has heightened the lights and deepened the shadows until some powerful contrasts are reached. He may well feel proud of his work, and the first National of this brilliant premiere. For the picture held a packed house at the Strand profoundly interested. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week Mary Pickford will be featured in "Heart O' the Hills."

THE PARAMOUNT.

"THE ROAD TO DIVORCE"—An excellent production starring Mary MacLaren, the delightful screen star, in the role of Mary Bird, is being presented today. The picture is in five acts and the little story drives us through a very skillfully. The picture will appeal to the critical observer for it has been wrought with a great deal of skill and feeling. A selected comedy is also shown. Friday and Saturday "The Great White Trail," a powerful production and the third chapter of "The Silent Avenger," Viagraph's wonderful seri-

at, will be presented. Corinne Griffith, the charming Vitagraph star, will appear soon in "Dead Line at Eleven," a newspaper story. Goes Out of Business. ## LAST MAJOR LEAGUE CHANCE FOR B. ROTH

Hard Hitting Outfielder Is Tough Bird to Handle.

Unless He Becomes Domesticated This Year His Career in Major League Company Is Expected to Be Terminated.

Bobby Roth, hard-hitting outfielder, recently traded to the Washington club by the Boston Red Sox, along with Shannon and in exchange for Harper, Foster and Blanton, is working on his last major league opportunity according to reports from the stockholders of the District of Columbia team. Roth is a tough "bird" for managers to handle, but will become domesticated this year or his major league career will be abruptly terminated by Clarke Griffith.

When the deal sending Roth and Shannon to Washington was announced, friends and advisers of Griffith rushed to the pilot to offer their sympathies in advance of what they termed a troublesome season. Roth undoubtedly was painted in darker colors than necessary. Griffith was given extensive information as to how best to manage a confirmed "rebel." The advice was accepted and thanks tendered in payment for it, and then Griffith did a little forecasting on his own hook.

"Roth has a bad name," said Griffith, "but there will be no trouble between us. I am sure. Personally, I am not in favor of this practice of giving a ball player a bad name, and from the first I am going to assure and prove to Roth that I will be his friend so long as he does as directed and

AN OPEN LETTER

To You—

Let me talk to you as one friend to another. You have some form of rheumatism and you seek relief. Let me tell you right here and now that the "way out" is not by dosing yourself heavily with drastic remedies but by using Stroniko and following the simple rules that come with it.

Whether you like it or not, you should get into the open air every day for at least one hour, or breathe plenty of fresh air at an open window. If at first you don't succeed, try again, the meaning of which is that you must keep on trying until you can walk and walk easily.

There are a few other simple rules, you will easily secure. Then look for the happiness of being free from what doctors call the uric acid disorder. Purify your blood, get the poison out, then you will begin to feel and to look younger. There is a marvelous sensation in being so well and active that you are ready to hop, skip and dance under the very charm and brightness of hot energy and misery of yesterday. Hold a hot lemon and a Stroniko powder over a glass and radiate with joy. Let your heart beat to be free from ailments. The time is NOW.

Now do as I say—take Stroniko two or three times a day in hot water. Put in a little lemon or lime juice if convenient. Sip a cup slowly. The benefit that you feel from day to day will astonish you. Be sure that you get the genuine Stroniko; take no substitute. But don't put off until tomorrow. Free yourself from rheumatism. Enjoy life! You are entitled to it.

EACH SATURDAY TO BE FARM LABOR DAY AT STATE BUREAU OF EMPLOYMENT'S OFFICES

HARRISBURG, April 28.—To relieve the acute shortage of farm laborers in this state, the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry, through its bureau of employment, has set aside Saturday of each week as Farm Labor Day at each of its offices. It has been learned that Saturday is a convenient day for farmers to meet workers at the state labor bureau for the purpose of arranging for their hire during the season.

Handfuls of high school boys will be placed on farms throughout the state during the summer vacation. In a further effort to supply farm laborers, the bureau of employment officials expect to have the boys go into the country, during June, July and August where they can have healthful employment, wholesome food, good wages and instructive experience.

The KITCHEN CABINET

Labor is very precious these days; so much to do, and so few to do it. Has brought the wise housewife to economize without sacrificing the comfort of the family.

Happy indeed is the woman who has the richness of health back of her hand the faculty for doing things.

If the war has taught us anything it is that idleness is unpopular. The woman who has time "on her hands" is not recognized among the intelligent.

GOOD THINGS FOR DINNER.

If one has a good-sized French potato cutter there may be made any number of attractive dishes using potatoes. The scraps need not be wasted, for they may be cooked, and mashed, and served as mashed potatoes or used in bread or potato muffins, as desired.

Potatoes Cooked in Broth.—Cut the potatoes with a cutter into balls, or they may be cut in cubes; cover with boiling salted water and let boil five minutes. Drain and set to finish cooking in well seasoned broth. When tender, drain and sprinkle with salt and finely minced parsley. This dish is especially good for those who cannot eat solid meat.

Hamburg Steak With Brussels Sprouts.—Chop one pound of steak from the top of the round, add one-half cupful of cold water and a teaspoonful of salt. Mix thoroughly and shape into small cakes. Rub over a hot frying pan with a bit of suet and lay in the cakes. When the juice is seen on the top of the cakes turn at once to cook on the other side. Have ready a smooth brown sauce; cook in it a little chopped ham and a few tablespoonsful of mushrooms. Have cooked until tender some brussels sprouts. Drain off the water, add salt, pepper and butter to season, then shake the saucepan over the fire till the sprouts have taken up all the seasoning. Set the sprouts in the center of a hot platter, the steak around them, and pour the sauce around the steak.

Escalloped Cabbage.—Shred and boil a cabbage as for hot steam. Make a white sauce, butter a baking dish and put in a layer of boiled cabbage, then a layer of white sauce, and sprinkle with grated cheese. Continue until the full season is used or the casserole is full. Season each layer with salt and pepper and bake 20 minutes in a moderate oven.

New York Shipbuilding A. A. connected with the big Gloucester (N. J.) ship plant, has fitted up an athletic field for employees costing $75,000.

The first dual athletic meet of any kind between Syracuse and Cornell will be the playing of the respective lacrosse teams in Ithaca, May 21.

University of Missouri plans an immense bowl modeled after the Yale stadium, with a seating capacity of 40,000 to 50,000, costing about $385,000.

S. Kanagami, Japanese marathon runner, plans a breathless sightseeing trip to America. A letter says he will attempt to run from New York to San Francisco.

Stanford university is about to add an exclusive athletic field for women students. The section will include tennis, basketball, handball and handball courts in addition to hockey fields and other athletic facilities.

THREE WELLS.

188 ACRES.

We are not selling stock to get money to drill on our own leases. The leases, covering three farms and together making one hundred eighty-eight acres, have been assigned to the Perryopolis Oil and Gas Company and are the property of the stockholders. The farms do not join, but were selected by experienced men because of their location between the large Fayette Anticline and the Lambert Syncline.

Two large gas companies have been paying rental for years on thousands of acres in this territory and one of our leases is almost entirely surrounded by the holdings of one of these companies.

Arrows point to locations where proposed wells will be drilled. Note Fayette Gas Co. well and Greensboro Gas Co. well—both producers. Our No. 3 well will be nearer the Fayette Anticline than these wells and our No. 1 well will be almost as near. No. 2 well is in the Lambert Syncline and near old Fuller oil well.

The Strange Case of Cavendish

By RANDALL PARRISH
Author of "The Devil's Own,"
"My Lady of the North," etc.

(Copyright by Randall Parrish)

He stood before her, his hat in hand, a strong, robust figure, his bronzed face clearly revealed; the sunlight making manifest the gray hair about his temples. To Miss Donovan he seemed all man, instinct with character and purpose, a virile type of the out-of-doors.

To the death, and his lips and eyes smiled. "I believe in you utterly."

"Thank you, Good-bye."

He watched her climb the back and emerge upon the bridge. He still stood there, bareheaded, when she

She turned and smiled back at him, turned and smiled back at him, waving her hand. Then the slender figure vanished, and he was left alone. A moment later, Westcott was striding up the trail, intent upon a plan to entrap Lacy.

They would have felt less confident in the future could they have overheard a conversation being carried on in a room of the Timmons house. It was Miss La Rue's apartment, possessing two windows, but furnished in a style so primitive as to cause that fastidious young lady to burst into laughter when she first entered and gazed about. Both her companions followed her, laden with luggage, and Beaton, sensing instantly what had thus affected her humor, dropped his bag on the floor.

"It's the best there is here," he protested. "Timmons has held it for you three days. If you feel like kicking about this room, you ought to see some of the others—mine, for instance, or the one Timmons put that other woman in."

"Oh, yes," she said, finding a seat and staring at him. "That reminds me. Did you say there was a girl here from New York? Sit down, Mr. Beaton, and let's talk. How's the door, Ned?"

He opened it and glanced out into the hall, throwing the bolt as he came back.

"All right, Celesta, but I wouldn't talk quite so loud; the partitions are not very tight."

"No objections to a cigarette, I suppose," and she produced a case. "Thanks; now I feel better—certainly, lit up. Well, Ned, the first thing I want to know is, who is this other New York skit; and how did she happen to blow in here just at this time?"

Beaton completed the lighting of his cigar, flung the match carelessly out of the window.

"Oh, she's all right," he said easily. "Just an innocent kid writer for Scribner's who's trying to make good writing about the beautiful scenery around here. Her name is Donovan. Her father's a big contractor and has money to burn."

"Did you ever hear the beat of that, Enright? Neddy is about to feather his nest. Well, go on."

"That's about all, I guess, only she ain't nothing; you need be afraid of."

"Sure not, with a watch-dog like you on guard. But if you ask me, I don't like the idea of her happening in here just at this time. This is no place for an innocent child," and she looked about, her lip curling. "Lord, I should say not. Do you happen to remember any New York contractor by that name, Mr. Enright?"

The rotund lawyer, his face elevated on the window-sill, a cigar between his lips, shook his head in emphatic dissent.

"Not lately; there was a 'Mr. Donovan' who had a put in the subway excavation—he was a Tammany man—but he died, and was never married. What's the girl look like?"

"Rather slender, with brown hair, sorter coppery to the sun, and gray eyes that grow dark when she's interested. About twenty-three or four, I should say."

"Did you get her full name?"

"Sure; it's on the register—Stella Donovan."

Enright lowered his feet to the floor, a puzzled look on his face his teeth clenched on his cigar.

"Hold on a bit till I think," he muttered. "That sounds mighty familiar—Stella Donovan! By the Lord, I've heard that name before somewhere. Ah, I have it—she's on the New York Star. I've seen her name signed to articles in the Sunday edition. I'll bet she's the girl."

"A New York newspaperwoman; well, what do you suppose she's doing out here? After us?"

Enright had a grip on himself again and slowly re-lit his cigar, leaning back, and staring out the window. His mind gripped the situation coldly.

"Well, we'd best be careful," he said slowly. "Probably it's merely a coincidence, but I don't like her lying to Beaton. That don't look just right. We'll lay quiet and try the young lady out. Beaton here can give her an introduction to Miss La Rue, and the rest is easy."

Westcott's purpose in visiting the La Rosita mine was a rather vague one. He thought had naturally associated Bill Lacy with whatever form of devilry had brought Beaton to the neighborhood of Haskell, and he felt convinced firmly that this special brand of devilry had some direct connection with the disappearance of Frederick Cavendish. Just what the connection between these people might prove to be was still a matter of doubt, but as Miss Donovan was seeking this information at the hotel, all that remained for him to do at present was an investigation of Lacy. The careful review of all Miss Donovan had told him only served to increase his confidence that his old partner still lived. No other conception seemed possible, or would account for the presence of Ned Beaton in Haskell, or the hurried call for Miss La Rue. Yet it was equally evident this was not caused by any miscarriage of their original plans. Apparently every detail of the crime, which meant the winning of Frederick Cavendish's fortune, had been thus far successfully carried out. The money was already practically in their possession, and not the slightest suspicion had been aroused. It had been a masterpiece of criminal ingenuity, so boldly carried out as to avoid danger of discovery.

Every step had been taken exactly in accord with the original outlines, except possibly that they had been hurried by Cavendish's sudden determination to return West, and his will disinheriting John. These had compelled earlier action, yet no radical change in plans, as the machinery was already prepared and in position. Luck had been with the conspirators when Frederick called in Enright to draw up the will.

Enright! Beyond doubt his were the hands dominating the affair. The whole thing lay before Westcott's imagination in its diabolical ingenuity—Enright's legal mind had left no loophole. He intended to play the game absolutely safe, so far, at least, as he was personally concerned.

The money was to go legally to John without the shadow of a suspicion resting upon it; and then—well, he knew how to do the rest; already he had a firm grip on a large portion. Yes, all this was reasonably clear; what remained obscure was the fate of Frederick Cavendish.

Westcott came back from his musings to this one important question. The answer puzzled him. If the man was dead why should Beaton remain at Haskell and insist on Miss La Rue's joining him? And if the man was alive and concealed somewhere in the neighborhood, what was their present object? Had they decided they were risking too much in permitting him to live? Had something occurred to make them feel it safer to have him out of the way permanently? What connection did Bill Lacy have with the gang?

Westcott rose to his feet and began following the trail up the canon. He was not serving Cavendish nor Miss Donovan by sitting there. He walked rapidly, but the sun was nearly down by the time he reached the mouth of his own drift.

While waiting word from the East which would enable him to develop the claim, Westcott had thought it best to discontinue work, and hide, as best he could, from others the fact that he had again discovered the lost lead of rich ore. To that end, after taking out enough for his immediate requirements in the form of nuggets, gathered from a single pocket, which he had later negotiated quietly at a town down the railroad, he had blocked up the new tunnel and discontinued operations. He had fondly believed his secret secure, until Lacy's careless words had aroused suspicion that the latter might have seen his telegrams to Cavendish. His only assistant, a Mexican, who had been with him for some time, remained on guard at the bunkhouse and, so far as he knew, no serious effort had been made to explore the drift by way of Lacy's antileas. Now, as he came up the darkening gulch and crunched his way across the rock pile before the tunnel entrance, he saw the cheerful blaze of a fire in the Mexican's quarters and stopped to question him.

"Senor—you!"

"Yes, Jose," and Westcott dropped on a bench. "Anything wrong? You seem nervous."

"No, senor. I expected you not to-night; there was a man there by the

Could Not Begin to Tell All.

"I could not tell you all the benefits I had from the use of Foley's Honey and Tar," writes Miss Rose Florence, 209 Hawkins Ave., N. Braddock, Pa. "I had a cold in my chest and tearing it would cause pneumonia. I tried Foley's Honey and Tar and it was not long till I felt relieved. I hope others suffering from severe colds will try it." Many such letters have been written, about this time-tried, reliable family medicine for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Took a Severe Cold.

"Our five year old son Paul took a severe cold last winter that settled on his lungs and he had terrible coughing spells. We were getting worried about him as the medicine we gave him did not help him in the least. A neighbor spoke so highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that I got a bottle of it, and the first dose benefited him so much that I continued giving it to him until he was cured," writes Mrs. Frank Crocker, Pana, Ill.—Adv.

big tree at sunset."

"One of the La Rosita gang likely. Don't fight them, Jose. Let them poke around inside if they want to; they won't find anything; but rock. Got a bite there for me?"

"Si, senor, plenty."

"All right, then; I'm hungry and have a bit of work ahead. Put it on the table here and sit down yourself, Jose."

The Mexican did as ordered, glancing across at the other between each mouthful of food, as though not exactly at ease. Westcott ate heartily, without pausing to talk.

"You hear yet, Senor Cavendish?" Jose asked at last.

"No." Westcott hesitated an instant, but decided not to explain further. "He must be away, I think."

"What you do if you no hear at all?"

"We'll go on with the digging ourselves, Jose. It'll pay wages until I can interest capital somewhere to come in on shares."

Westcott stared into the fireplace; then the gravity of his face relaxed into a smile.

CHIC BRAID-TRIMMED SUIT

This is a strictly American fashion in a braid-trimmed walking suit which is sure to appeal to many women.

FANS THAT WILL INTEREST

New Models Are Inspired by Egypt and Greece; Novelty From Un-curbed Ostich.

New fans are made of algerette and paradise. These only the European may enjoy, as the bird law of America prevents their import. For export trade eagle and vulture plumes are being shown. In the effort to provide something new and interesting models are being brought out in striped ostrich, which closely imitates algerette and coque. The square Egyptian and the pointed Greek forms are being much used.

A novelty fan in East Indian design is made from uncurled ostrich, the delicate fronds springing from a ring of tortoise shell, which serves in place of sticks. The fronds fall in a graceful one-side sweep. The stick of the fan is of tortoise shell and from the shell ring falls a long silken tassel.

Another takes its inspiration from the fans of the ancient Egyptian heaules. This one, in the form of a square, is developed in imitation algerette, made of ostrich feathers and mounted on shell sticks.

Pure white eagle feathers make still another new fan of Greek design. To be in keeping with the feathers of this superb bird the sticks are of onyx, set with pearls and diamonds, and the fan is carried on a platinum chain.

LINE LONGER, WAIST LOWER

Method Most Often Employed is Draping of Sash Low About the Hips.

In all of the new clothes prepared for this spring the carrying out of longer lines appears. This is done in various ways. Perhaps the method most often employed is the draping of a sash low about the hips. This low tied sash is the favorite method of giving the straight chemise dress—which still remains in fashion—the low waistline appearance. It is only necessary to tie a softly draped piece of material about a last year's chemise frock to place it in the front rank of this spring's fashions.

For those who wish to economize, this really offers an excellent opportunity. Each woman may satisfy her own taste in the manner of tying her sash. It may be at the side or in the back; some of them even tie in small bows at the front. There is just as much leeway, too, in the size and length of these sashes, which may be puffy bows with ends that are little longer than the loops themselves, or the ends may be very long, in some instances hanging below the bottom of the skirt. Putting wide sashes on chemise dresses is a decided departure from the narrow string belts, that have graced the chemise frock heretofore.

The Old Bortha Returns.

As one looks over the offerings one finds now and then an old familiar note. For instance, one frequently sees lace berthas. They sometimes appear on lingerie dresses, lace ones especially. (Really, lace frocks are threatening the georgette ones!) On one charming frock of pink crepe de chine there was featured the lace berthas in-laid back. To complete the picture of which it was a part when last it was in our midst, puffed sleeves and a full skirt appeared with it. And there was a sash, too. It was of the nice old double-bow variety.

Ribbon on Lingerie.

Two-toned and flowered ribbon is to be seen on many new pieces of lingerie and on such described as suitable for the bridal trousseau.

Porto Rican Blouses.

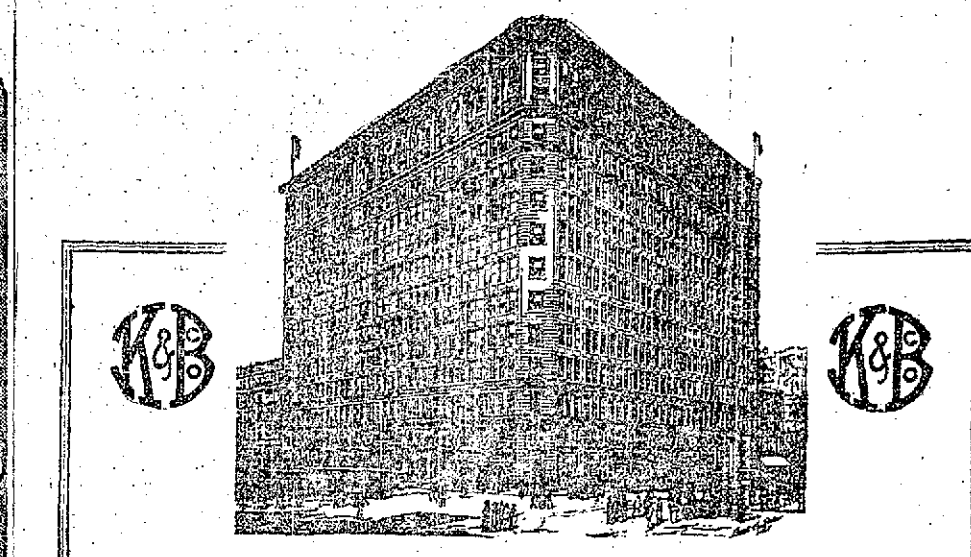

Porto Rican blouses are in high favor.
